FRISCO POLICE PARTICIPATING IN WARRANT ROUND-UP

FRISCO, TX – The Frisco Police Department will once again participate in the annual Great Texas Warrant Round-up that begins tomorrow. Clerks with the Frisco Municipal Court will begin the round-up tomorrow morning by placing phone calls to wanted individuals providing them an opportunity to pay for their warrants over the telephone.

Wanted persons who fail to resolve their outstanding warrants by next Monday face the possibility of having Frisco police officers arrive at their workplace or residence. A group of officers will be assigned to a special warrant round-up detail next week with the sole task of tracking down individuals with outstanding Frisco warrants and bringing them to justice.

In 2010, the police department and municipal court successfully cleared over $290,000 in unpaid fines and 749 total warrants during the warrant round-up. Currently, the city holds over 8,000 outstanding warrants totaling more than $2.2 million in unpaid fines. This is the fifth year that the City of Frisco has participated in the Great Texas Warrant Round-up.

If you believe you have unpaid tickets or an active warrant out of the City of Frisco, you can contact the Frisco Municipal Court at 972.292.5555 or pay for your warrant online today before you are greeted by a Frisco police officer at your front door.
